

After the horse sections at Royal shows on the east coast had been cancelled due to EI, most competitors breathed a sigh of relief that the Perth Royal was going ahead. Conditions could not have been better on Thursday for the Standardbred classes. Best Presented commenced the days' competition and had Judge Glenys Lilley closely inspecting plaits and general presentation. This year's award was won by Leonie Morrone and Adina Park Phedora. This filly was the sole entrant in the filly three years and under class but was overlooked against the older mares that had the powerful workout of Dynamite Trunkey secure first and Champion over last years winner Admiral's Joylyn taking second and Reserve Champion.

Not one of the stallions displayed their best workouts; however Admiral's Christmas once again came through and was awarded first and Champion over My Smilin Assassin, who was attending his first Royal, awarded second and Reserve Champion. Dynamite Trunkey and Admiral's Christmas re-entered the ring for supreme with the mare's hopes quickly dashed when Admiral's Christmas was called forward for Supreme Standardbred Exhibit for the fourth consecutive year.

With only three geldings competing the judge was very swift with Glyding Moments placing first and eventual Champion over first place getter in the over 15hh class Lights Of Wembley. No Reserve award is given for the geldings.

In the ridden four horses competed in the 15hh and under class and it was the more forward moving Admiral's Joylyn winning this class. Dynamite Trunkey worked well enough at her first Royal to win the over height class. Admirals Joylyn provided her rider Dahlyn Dwyer with a dream come true when awarded Champion Ridden Standardbred after being brought back from a four month spell just for this show and had only four days of work before competing. Last year's winner Glyding Moments re-entered the ring and was awarded the Reserve over Dynamite Trunkey with the mare displaying signs of greenness and inexperience of both horse and rider.

Just three horses presented for judging in the Standardbred harness classes. A new addition to harness in Adina Park Phedora stole the thunder of her more experienced rivals when making a clean sweep of the Turnout and Open Harness and guided her partner to win the Driver class in what was an impressive show of poise and movement from such a young horse to completely outclass her rivals.

In what would have to be a rare feat, all three discipline winners are blood relations. Admiral's Christmas being a full brother to Admiral's Joylyn and the sire of Adina Park Phedora.
