

PERTH ROYAL SHOW

27th September 2016

Judge: Judge: Dianne Aumann (VIC)

Entries were strong for this year's annual Royal Show with seventeen exhibits listed as acceptances and with only 2 withdrawals on the day, fifteen immaculate Standardbreds were presented for Victorian judge Dianne Aumann on the day.

The Best Presented class was strongly contested with the immaculate duo of Elissa Kettlewell and Caught On Camera taking the coveted blue sash. The Champion Led Mare was taken out by the robust but very elegant moving AP Burlesque for Kristie Morrone earning her 2nd consecutive Champion Mare title at this event. Radial Pie and Fiona Attard yet again being awarded Reserve Champion.

The gelding classes were divided into two height classes with both Royal Pride and Swagga displaying the required movement when placing first and second respectively in the 15.1hh and under group. Prince Matao and Caught On Camera took out top billings in the over 15.1hh class from a very competitive line up. Both first and second place getters of each class we asked to enter the ring for Champion/Reserve judging and asked to walk on the circle before lining up for judging. Royal Pride was awarded Champion Gelding and Swagga successfully challenged Prince Matao for the Reserve Champion sash.

The Supreme judging require a very long workout with the judge asking to show off the best movement each could deliver. After a quick glance on a side profile view was completed, the mare AP Burlesque was called forward as the Supreme Standardbred Led Exhibit for 2016. The judge commenting her big floating movement was exceptional. In doing so she received a beautiful garland, rug and $500 prize purse all sponsored by OTTWA.

The ridden classes in the latter part of the day had six horses competing overall in the two height classes on offer. Royal Pride with Kelly Patterson in the saddle executed an almost perfect workout that had them awarded first in the 15.1hh and under class over Peter Pan for second. In the over 15.1hh class Caught On Camera was victorious over Prince Matao taking second place over his less experience rivals.

The Champion Ridden was judged on the ring with the balance and superb movement of Royal Pride taking out his second consecutive Champion Ridden Standardbred Royal Show title. Once again, the generous sponsorship from OTTWA had him adorned with a garland, rug and $500 prize money to take home. Caught On Camera and Elissa Kettlewell were successful in earning the Reserve Champion Ridden sash.
