

PERTH ROYAL SHOW

29th October 2015

Judge: Greg Crocker (SA)

Fifteen horses were presented for judging at this year's Perth Royal Show in absolute ideal conditions. With the sun shining, the exhibits and handlers entered the ring for Best Presented to start the program. Again, everyone is to be congratulated on the presentation that made it extremely difficult for judge Mr Greg Crocker to select his winners. Scoot On By handled by Bayley Thomas was awarded first closely followed by AP Burlesque (Leonie Morrone) second, Sexy Beast (Kristie Morrone) third, Jess O'Meagher (Colonial Salute) along with Tracey Cosham (Royal Pride) filling fourth and fifth respectively and Jocelyn Young (Cyclone Dilinger) completing the line up with sixth place.

The mares four years and over had five entries presented for judging with AP Burlesque being the judged elect for Champion and Fiona Attard's Radial Pie keeping her impeccable Royal Show form intact securing Reserve Champion.

The gelding classes had two heights with Royal Pride successful over Scoot On By in the smaller height class. Sexy Beast was successful in the over height gelding class which bought together these two geldings to face off for Champion. Royal Pride was honoured today with the Champion award and Scoot On By re-entered the ring to successfully challenge for Reserve. The big mare and the petite gelding presented for judging of Supreme. As no workouts were required and after deliberating for a period of time Royal Pride was announced Supreme Standardbred for the second year. To cap of a wonderful boost for our breed "Piggy" was also elected in the Top Five Exhibits of the show on the Saturday.

The ridden had an even number of horses in each height class with Royal Pride looking and working an absolute treat for his rider Kelly Paterson to take first place over Scoot On By (Bayley Thomas) for second and All Style (Amie Stanhope) third. The other class was taken out by the flashy Colonial Salute from Caught On Camera and Sexy Beast. As with the height classes the Champion was also decided with work only on the ring, without much hesitation Royal Pride was awarded his second major of the day and earning his owner Tracey Cosham the clean sweep of the OTT cash, rugs and garlands on offer. This is a remarkable result for the connections considering how far this horse has come over the past twelve months. Colonial Salute was a little edgy with this being his first Royal but Jess O'Meagher would have been more than happy with being awarded Reserve Champion making the long trip from Augusta well worthwhile.
