

PERTH ROYAL SHOW

30th September 2014

Judge: Narelle Kinnear (NSW)

After three days of storms and heavy rains, competitors in the Standardbred classes at the Perth Royal Show breathed a sigh of relief when they were greeted with clear skies and perfect showing conditions. Judging commenced with the Best Presented class. With 13 entries, the judge had a difficult time selecting her top 6. After much deliberation, Kristie Morrone and the well named Swagga were awarded first place over Amie Stanhope and the lovely gelding All Style. Tracey Cosham and Royal Pride were awarded 3rd place.

While the mare class was small in numbers, the quality of the horses that were presented was very high. After showing a balanced and flowing workout, Cyclone Dillinger, shown by Jocelyn Young was called forward to be awarded Champion mare. The 2013 Royal Show Champion Mare, Radial Pie, showed her usual flair and was awarded Reserve Champion. Samantha Froome and Terra Frost took home 3rd place.

The gelding under 15.2hh class was very well supported, with 8 competitors presented for judging. The judge was captivated by the showy gelding Royal Pride, who took out first place. The flashy moving Swagga was awarded second over the glistening Prince Pumba, shown perfectly by young Daniel Suvaljko. The over 15.2hh class was filled with big-moving horses. The seasoned campaigner Body Armour, shown by Bayley Thomas, gave a faultless display to win the class. Newcomer Spanish Assassin, shown by Rebecca Phillips, was called in second over Caught on Camera, shown by Elissa Kettlewell, who performed a soft and flowing workout to take out 3rd. The first and second place-getters from the gelding classes were all worked out again and Royal Pride was sashed gelding over the youngster Swagga, who took home the Reserve.

Cyclone Dillinger and Royal Pride entered the ring again and the gelding, Royal Pride was called forward and sashed the 2014 Supreme Champion Led Standardbred Exhibit.

The Ridden Standardbred 15.2 and under class was very competitive and some quality workouts were produced. Satinka Park Ashtaar, ridden by Jackie Searies gave a perfect display to defeat Tracey Cosham and Royal Pride and Hayley Baker, riding Peter Pan, finished 3rd.

Ridden Standardbred over 15.2hh only had one competitor, but Caught on Camera completed an impressive workout to be awarded first place. The two ridden class winners re-entered the ring for the judging of the Champion ridden exhibit. Caught on Camera displayed his stunning movement to be awarded the 2014 Champion and was presented with a gorgeous rug and garland, plus $1000 prize money provided very generously by sponsors RWWA and Off the Track. The very consistent Satinka Park Ashtaar was sashed Reserve Champion ridden exhibit.

The committee would like to sincerely thank Off the Track and RWWA for providing sponsorship for the ridden classes on the day. All competitors should also be congratulated on the presentation of their horses and the friendly atmosphere that made the day an enjoyable one for all. We now begin the countdown to the 2015 event!
