

PERTH ROYAL SHOW

5th October 2012

Judge: Vickie Mascord (NSW)

Beautiful Weather made for a delightful days showing for the Standardbreds at this year's Royal Show. Unfortunately we had three withdrawals leaving only nine horses to be presented before Judge Vickie Mascord from NSW.

The Best Presented commenced the day's proceedings with the judge taking particular notice of all aspects of presentation of both horses and handlers. After feeling coats, pulling plaits and tails the immaculate duo of Adina Park Darcy Woods and Kristie Morrone were called forward to take the honours this year.

The mares entered the ring next with all four contestants not totally comfortable with the surroundings resulting in some rather unbalanced workouts. It was evident the judge was looking for a clean gait and balanced overall outline. Matildas Bay Dream was called forward for first and Champion at her very first Royal appearance and Angostura earned another Reserve Champion for Dave Turnbull.

The smaller height gelding class had two contestants with Another Notch Up taking out first place and Adina Park Darcy Woods victorious in the taller group, These two horses came together for Champion judging with the judge deciding after workouts that the tall black gelding Adina Park Darcy Woods would be her Champion elect. Lights of Wembley entered the ring to challenge Another Notch Up for the Reserve sash. With workouts completed Another Notch Up was called forward for Reserve Champion Gelding at his and his handler Kayla Buckland's first Royal.

The mare and the gelding entered the ring for Supreme with the judge calling only for side profiles to decide her winner. The perfectly presented statue of the big gelding caught the judge's eye to be called forward for Supreme Led Exhibit for 2012.

With the withdrawal of two of our higher assessed horses from the ridden it would be a matter of how the new and inexperienced ridden brigade would handle the activities on the main arena. Unfortunately, Peter Pan whom would have been a warm favourite to figure in the main awards totally became over whelmed and despite a great attempt by his mount Hayley Baker to coax him forward in the smaller height class he just would not settle at all. USA Legacy behaved impeccably and was awarded first place in this class over debut ridden horse Another Notch Up placing second. The taller class had both horses working cautiously and the decision could have gone either way. Adina Park Darcy Woods although still green through his transitions was awarded first over Lights of Wembley. Both class winners were worked on the circle for Champion with USA Legacy continuing to work well and the novice Adina Park Darcy Woods beginning to display some nice work. USA Legacy after working consistently throughout was duly awarded Champion and Adina Park Darcy Woods displayed impeccable manners at only his third ridden show to be awarded Reserve Champion.

Congratulations to members who competed at this year's Royal. Again the standard of presentation of horses and handlers was outstanding and most importantly the sportsmanship shown was very warming.
